ENVIRONMENTAL, RIO DE JANEIRO:
MUNICIPAL SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT POLICY

On June 11, 2019, Rio de Janeiro Municipality published Decree No. 46078 ("Decree"), regulating the sustainable development policy, creating a Planning and Sustainable Development Committee ("Committee") and a Sustainable Development Plan ("PDS").

Among the innovations brought by the Decree, we highlight:

- Specification of the Sustainable Development Goals ("ODS"), such as to ensure sustainable patterns for production and consumption, support the sustainable economic growth etc.;
- Implementation of the PDS guidelines, such as compliance with ODS' goals and indicators, and other directives foreseen by local legislation;
- Indication of the competence of the Committee, as well as of the agencies and entities that will be part of its composition;
- Forecast that the PDS will be reviewed every 10 (ten) years, and can be evaluated and updated, if necessary, every 5 (five) years.

The PDS will be discussed at local forums and shall be concluded until the end of the first semester of 2020.
